Publication Policy and Authorship Manual including

IASLIC Standard and Specification

The IASLIC Bulletin (ISSN 0018-8441, CODEN IASLA 9, RNI No. 5034/59) is a double-blind peer-reviewed journal in the field of Library and Information Science, published quarterly by the Indian Association of Special Libraries and Information Centres (IASLIC) - a learned professional society, cherishes its publication policy and guidelines for authors as enunciated below.

1 Publication Policy

1.1 Journal Frequency and Scope

The ardent aim of the IASLIC Bulletin is to bring out original research papers of significance and value in the field of library and information science and services. It comes out quarterly in March, June, September and December every year. Research papers/articles reflecting expounded innovations, State-Of-The-Art Reports (SOTAR), Trend/Review Reports, Short Communications in relevant fields are gladly received, peer-reviewed (double-blind) and published, if accepted, according to their merit and space at disposal. The articles, which give vent to merely adaptation of similar contributions appearing elsewhere, are strongly discouraged. Sometime, however, the Editorial Board allows, at its discretion, reproduction of special lectures, reprints of very important but somewhat obscure articles etc., and letters to the Editor.

Book Reviews in the relevant field are also published, if the Editor receives a request from its publisher/author along with two copies of the book to review, should it be found suitable for publication.

1.2 Editorial Functionalities

IASLIC Bulletin is an editorially independent journal. An Advisory Board, consisting of eminent LIS professionals of India and abroad, guides the Editorial Board and the Editor to maintain publication ethics for promoting integrity in research and publishing the quality output in it. An Editorial Board functions independently to assist the Editor. The utmost longing of the Advisory Board and the Editorial Board is for the enrichment of IASLIC Bulletin with the adducible, prophetic and resounding contributions of LIS professionals – teachers and practitioners across the globe.

On receiving the research papers, an Editorial Working Group along with the Editorial Assistants duly records it by allotting a paper identification unique number (Paper ID), scrutinises carefully for its physical verification and informs the corresponding author about the shortcomings of the paper initially. Once the received paper is otherwise found appropriate in physical format, it is submitted to the Editor for initiating peer-review process.

1.3 Peer-Review Process

IASLIC Bulletin follows double-blind peer-review process maintaining full confidentiality. A confidential list of referees is maintained for this purpose. Comments on any manuscript are sought from two referee(s), communicated the same to respective first / corresponding author for modification whenever necessary. The paper is accepted if improved satisfactorily and should it is found suitable for publication, otherwise rejected. Authors are communicated accordingly.

1.4 Copy Right Transfer Policy

Author(s) of a research paper are required to sign (sequentially) the declaration and copyright transfer form which would permit the Editor and the publisher, IASLIC Bulletin, to publish the article and to reproduce it whenever necessary, and to archive it in any form and also to defend it against its any improper use. The first author (or the corresponding author) is responsible for having coordination among all co-authors in this regard and for managing all communication with the editorial office of the IASLIC Bulletin. It is to note that all correspondences regarding paper submission are to be treated as confidential. Authors must maintain confidentiality regarding referees reports and other related materials which must not be posted on any website / social media / otherwise publicised without prior permission of the Editor.

1.5 Open Access Policy

IASLIC Bulletin provides immediate Open Access to its contents along with bibliographical details, abstracts and keywords. Author's final version of the article can be used for self-archiving by the authors for personal use, for internal institutional use and for scholarly sharing purposes with proper acknowledgement, attribution and credit for the published work. However, the final version of any paper with full-text as published in the IASLIC Bulletin may be archived or posted in any online digital repository after two years of its publication.

1.6 Publication Ethics and Prevention of Malpractices

IASLIC is always in favour of promoting integrity in research and its publication ethics. Thus, the publication policy for IASLIC Bulletin is framed following the guidelines of different agencies like Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE) (<https://publicationethics.org>), to guide authors, reviewers, members of the Advisory Board and Editorial Board and the publisher. The important issues of worth noting are : (i) all information pertaining to the scripts are kept confidential prior to its publication; (ii) simultaneous publication of the same article in more than one journal is a breach of publication ethics; (iii) each script submitted for publication must be accompanied with a plagiarism test report within the justified limit of similarity index. The editorial board reserves the right to use any appropriate software for detecting plagiarism of the submitted script at any time.

IASLIC Bulletin is always keen for preventing publications from malpractices -- infringement of professional ethical codes and copyright agreement, submission of papers to multiple bodies for publication, undue claims of authorship or change in authorship and the likes. Such events shall attract significant punishment as may be decided by the Editorial Board time to time

1.7 Correction and Retraction Policy

IASLIC Bulletin is governed by its policy for allowing amendments – i.e. corrections and retractions or withdrawal of its peer-reviewed published papers. This policy, as practiced in IASLIC, utters in that if the situation warrants, types of corrections and/or retractions are to be decided upon by the Editor with the advice of the referees and in consultation with the members of the Advisory and/or Editorial Board. Though the authors' clarifications are sought for, the Editor is the final authority to decide upon the rationale of an amendment and/or its impunity. Amendments, if any, are notified formally under the categories of erratum, corrigendum or retraction to maintain publication record and/or for scientific accuracy of what is published.

Erratum: When any important error is noticed in anything included in the journal, erratum notification is published in a subsequent issue for maintaining proper publication record / scientific integrity of the paper.

Corrigendum: When any major error is identified as the mistakes of author(s) that affect the publication record / the scientific integrity of the paper, the corrigendum is published in a subsequent issue of the journal.

Retraction: When any invalidity of any published paper comes to light, author(s) are asked to sign a note of retraction specifying the error stating briefly how the conclusions are affected and to submit it for publication. If authors disagree and/or decline to retract, the Editor seeks advice of the referees and imposes the type of amendment that seems most appropriate, noting the dissent of the author(s) in retraction published.

1.8 Indexing and Abstracting

IASLIC Bulletin is indexed/abstracted in Indian Citation Index (ICI), Indian Science Abstracts (ISA), Indian Library Science Abstracts (ILSA), Guide to Indian Periodical Literature, Library and Information Science Abstracts (LISA) and INSPEC.

2 General Requirements

2.1 Style and Form

- 2.1.1 Write concisely and simply, using simple sentences of short and medium length as far as practicable. Writing in a succinct manner results in (a) economy in printing, and (b) economy of effort in reading.
- 2.1.2 Use "I" and "We" (except in the abstract) rather than 'the (present) author(s)', and the active rather than the passive voice. In any case, do not mix "I" and 'the author' in the same paper.
- 2.1.3 Abbreviations should not be introduced abruptly without explanation. When it appears first, the name or title should be given in full followed by the abbreviation within parentheses, for example, 'Optical Character Recognition (OCR)'. Thereafter, the abbreviation may be used alone. However, popular acronyms can be used independently.

2.2 Title Page

- 2.2.1 Manuscript must be submitted with a separate 'Title page' containing the title of the article, name(s) of author(s), address for communication with PIN code, phone number and an e-mail address for quick correspondences.

Only the title of the research paper should appear on the first page of the text.

2.3 Title

- 2.3.1 The title should be concise and informative. It should be free from ambiguous phrases like 'Contribution to the knowledge of', 'Some considerations on....' etc. Subtitle should be avoided unless absolutely necessary.

2.3.2 Use 'title case' style for the title of the paper submitted for publication.

2.4 Authors

2.4.1 Forward rendered name(s) of author(s) should appear after the title sequentially as decided by themselves along with their respective affiliation, addresses, phone numbers and email IDs.

2.4.2 Once a paper is submitted, no change (i.e. addition, deletion and/or rearrangement) in authorship is permissible.

2.4.3 The first author (or the corresponding author) is responsible for having coordination between for managing all communication with the editorial office of the IASLIC Bulletin and among co-authors.

2.4.4 About author(s) within 100 words along with photograph (B/W) of each author sequentially, as they appeared along with the title, should be added at the end of the article in a separate page.

2.5 Abstract

2.5.1 The abstract should be informative in nature and must convey distinctly the Purpose, Design/Methodology/Approach, Findings and Originality/Value of the paper with these sub-headings. The abstract, preferably not exceeding 350 words, must be intelligible on its own without reference to the main text. Do not include anything in the abstract that is not covered in the paper.

2.6 Keywords

2.6.1 At most eight keywords separated by semicolons (;) should be included which will indicate the principal subjects covered by the paper. Keywords are to be standardised (as per any standard Subject Headings List) and placed immediately after the abstract.

A good title, abstract and appropriate keywords help secondary information services to publicise rapidly and facilitate future retrieval.

3 Technical Requirements

3.1 A full-length research paper (preferably within 5000 words) should be typed with a left-hand margin of about 3 cm on A4 size, consecutively numbered pages. Use double-spacing of lines including the abstract, references, tables, etc.

3.2 Do not italicise common Latin expressions or abbreviations, such as a priori, et al, ca, cf, eg., i.e. viz., etc. Use italics for special emphasis, for new terms when they are introduced, words in foreign language, and titles of journals.

3.3 Avoid using roman numerals.

3.4 Headings for sections and sub-sections should be in the following pattern:

3.4.1 Sectional headings, subheadings, sub-subheadings should be placed properly and also are to be numbered with decimal subdivisions (e.g. 3, 3.4, 3.4.1,) in Arabic numerals.

3.4.2 Main section heading should be in Roman bold lower case, except the first letter and serious cases where capitals must be used, e.g. Proper nouns, abbreviations etc.

- 3.4.3 The subheadings should be in bold italics lower case, except the first letter and serious cases where capitals must be used.
- 3.4.4 The sub-subheadings should be in italics lower case, except the first letter and serious cases where capitals must be used.
- 3.5 Tables and Illustrations should be presented as instructed in the following subsections:
- 3.5.1 Use double line-spacing among rows and avoid vertical lines in tables
- 3.5.2 Keep the number of tables to a minimum and make them as small and simple as possible. Use of unnecessary and irrelevant tables, lengthy tables may disqualify the paper.
- 3.5.3 Table headings and figure legends should be distinct, legible, self-explanatory and as short as possible. Serially numbered table-titles should appear at the top of the table while figure-titles should be placed at bottom.
- 3.5.4 Colour in illustrations, tables, graphs or even in text must be avoided. They should be presented in black and white.
- 3.5.5 Illustrations should be submitted in original.

4 IASLIC Style for Referencing and Citations

- 4.1 The bibliographical references and citations must be presented in accordance with the 'IASLIC Standard and Specification' of IASLIC design.
- 4.2 Only published papers/documents are to be included in the reference list, with the exception of Ph D Theses and Dissertations, and paper that have been accepted for publication and assigned to a specific issue number of a periodical. Online resources, social media postings, e-mails etc, if academically warranted, may also be used subject to satisfactory certification about their authenticity.
- 4.3 In the text, both parenthetical citations and narrative citations may be used. However, citations should be serially numbered at appropriate places preferably after the name of the author, or the title of the document. The citation number(s) should be placed within square brackets as superscripts at appropriate places. For example, POPSI^[12].
- 4.4 The references should be listed following the serial numbers at the end of the text under the last name of author (or first author in case of multi-authored contributions) in all capitals, with the initials or other parts of the name in usual case within parentheses, for example RANGANATHAN (S R) or DASGUPTA(Arun Kanti).
- 4.5 Do not use 'et al' or 'and others' in the reference list, but write out names of all authors. However, for citing inside the text '...and others' may be appended after the name of the first author, for example 'Ranganathan and others^[5] discussed.....'.
- 4.6 If no author entry, personal or corporate, can be determined, the publication should be listed under its title with first two words in upper case letters ignoring articles 'A', 'An', 'The' and words alike. Avoid using the entry 'anonymous'.
- 4.7 As abbreviations may cause confusion, serial titles (e.g. Periodicals and Monographs series) must be given in full (unabbreviated).
- 4.8 Capitalise serial titles according to the language rules in each case, i.e. normally write the title in the way in which it is written in the serial itself and italicise.

- 4.9 Omit all regular unit terms, such as volume, number, series, Band, Heft, Tome, facsimile etc.
- 4.10 All numbers should be given in Arabic numerals even if they are in roman in the original publication. Issue number should follow the volume number separated by a comma. e.g. 4,2 indicate second issue of the fourth volume.
- 4.11 For a serial having no volume number, but a running serial number, the latter may be given in brackets e.g. (137).
- 4.12 Inclusive pagination (e.g. 174-85) should be given for all papers published in serial publications or forming part of a book.
- 4.13 Information on the websites keeps on changing through updating of the same. Hence, the date of its publication or the most recent update is an important factor to include in the reference. If neither can be determined, then it should indicate the date of search at the end of the entry by appending the term 'Retrieved on' within parenthesis after the URL.
- 4.14 If otherwise not instructed under individual document-type mentioned below, the URL followed by the date of retrieval within parenthesis at the end of the entry should be mentioned wherever warranted. For example, in case of an e-book the URL and the date of retrieval may be appended at the end of the entry- https://www.mkgandhi.org/satyagraha_safrica/satyagraha_safrica.htm (Retrieved on : Oct 02, 2019).
- 4.15 Finally all the references and citations should be cross-checked to ensure accuracy and completeness before submitting the manuscript.

5 Submission of Manuscripts

5.1 Manuscripts must be prepared in Standard English language. It is strongly recommended that before submitting a manuscript, the author(s) should check thoroughly to avoid grammatical errors, inconsistencies and violations of the instructions for authors.

5.2 The author(s) should ask qualified persons to read it critically before submitting a manuscript. This will facilitate subsequent refereeing and editorial review, speed up editorial treatment and shorten the publication time lag. Manuscripts written in poor English may attract disqualification.

5-3 Author(s) are required to perform plagiarism test of the manuscript with a good Plagiarism test software and to attach the detail report along with the manuscript to be submitted.

5.4 Two copies of manuscript legibly printed on one-side of A4 size sheets of papers including legible copies of all illustrations are required to be submitted to the Office of the Editor. The author(s) should retain a complete copy as a safeguard against unforeseen loss.

5.5 Author(s) must declare that the paper submitted has not been published before and is not simultaneously being considered for publication elsewhere. Author(s) must also submit a duly signed copyright transfer and declaration regarding the originality of the manuscript. 'Format of Author's Declaration and Copyright Transfer' is given below.

5.6 Manuscripts composed in Word (.doc or .docx file format) must also be sent as an attachment to iaslic.journal@gmail.com. along plagiarism test report and author's declaration.

5.7 Convincing persuasion for publication of any article should be refrained from.

6 Editorial Treatment

6.1 When the Office of the Editor receives a manuscript, receipt is acknowledged and the manuscript has to pass through physical verification process to check whether the manuscript is prepared in conformity with the prescribed guidelines of IASLIC design.

6.2 The manuscript is then sent to referee(s) for double-blind review. After review and editorial scrutiny, the manuscript is either accepted or rejected or communicated for improvement to the corresponding author.. After proper revision and on satisfaction of referee(s)/Editorial Board, the manuscript is accepted and provisionally assigned to a specific issue of the IASLIC Bulletin. Rejected manuscripts are not returned to the author(s).

6.3 The first author of each article published in IASLIC Bulletin is presented with a complimentary copy of the respective issue of the journal in which the article is included.

6.4 Disclaimer: The Editor, Editorial Board, Advisory Board or Publisher will not be held responsible for the opinion expressed by the author(s) or any consequences arising from the use of information contained in this journal. The publication of advertisements does not constitute any endorsement by the Publisher or by the Editor in favour of the products advertised.
