Report about the 368th Study Circle Meeting of IASLIC

The 368th Study Circle Meeting of IASLIC was held on 27th November, 2025 (Thursday) at 3:00 pm at the Central Library of the University of Kalyani, Nadia, West Bengal. The speaker of the above-mentioned Study Circle Meeting was Dr. Swati Ghosh, Librarian, Savitri Girls College, Kolkata. The Chairperson of the meeting was Prof (Dr) Partha Sarathi Mukhopadhyay, Department of Library and Information Science, University of Kalyani, Nadia, W.B. The Co-Chairperson of the abovementioned study circle meeting was Dr. Dipa Roy, Librarian (In-charge), University of Kalyani, Nadia, W.B. The Topic of the discussion at the said study circle meeting of IASLIC was "Information, Communication on Health Awareness: Role of Street Libraries in Kolkata". Welcoming the dignitaries, guests and audience, Mr Abhijit Kumar, General Secretary of IASLIC, briefly stated the activities of IASLIC and history of the study circle meetings. Thereafter Dr Tridib Chattopadhyay, Convenor, Study Circle Division, IASLIC, introduced the Speaker and the Chairperson of the session. Prof. (Dr.) Partha Sarathi Mukhopadhyay gave an overview of the issues regarding the availability of health information and the possible ways of accessing the health information. After that the speaker Dr. Swati Ghosh started the session and delivered her lecture on the particular issue.

In this lecture Dr. Swati Ghosh discussed the nature and extent of the street libraries and the conceptual development of the street libraries in and around Kolkata city. Health literacy is an important aspect to every individual in the society, as a health literate person understands his / her health status, can take preventive and curative measures of various diseases. But In reality, many people lack health literacy and many research reports are showing that 88% of the population have insufficient health literacy levels and are limiting their ability to effectively navigate the healthcare system and support their well-being. Street libraries those are evolved into important information centres can act as health information dissemination centres Dr Ghosh added. Many nations have adopted national plans to improve health literacy. Also individuals are required to access the free flow of huge and effective health information in a proper manner and the role of librarians and information professionals are important to disseminate the information and distribute it through proper channels of communication. In this respect, this discussion focuses on the importance of the street library especially in a developing nation like India. The lecture was followed by a question - answer session. The Chairperson of the session Prof. (Dr.) Partha Sarathi Mukhopadhyay summarized entire discussion in a pinpointed manner. The students, teachers and research scholars took active part in the discussion. The Chairperson also stated that he has gained a lot of knowledge from this valuable and thought provoking lecture by Dr. Ghosh. Overall this lecture was appreciated by the audience. Dr Dipa Roy, Dr. Debebrata Bhattacharyya, Mr. Abhijit Kumar, Mr. Sukalyan Majumder, Mr. Rajib and a few students & scholars took active part in the discussion. The vote of thanks was delivered by Mr. Sukalyan Majumder of the Central Library of the University of Kalyani, Nadia, West Bengal. After that, Dr Tridib Chattopadhyay, Convenor of the Study Circle Division of IASLIC thanked all the dignitaries, guests and the audience regarding their active participation and involvement. The meeting ended with thanks to the Chair.

Dr. Tridib Chattopadhyay.

LIBRARY VISION 2047

January 5-7, 2026

Organised by

Department of Library and Information Science,
Karnataka State Akkamahadevi Women University,
Vijayapura, Karnataka - PIN 586108.

About KSAWUV

Karnataka State Akkamahadevi Women University (KSAWU), Vijayapura, established in 2003, is the first women's university in Karnataka and among the few in India dedicated exclusively for women's education. Recognized by the UGC under Sections 2(f) and 12(B), the University is named after the 12th century saint-poetess and social reformer Akkamahadevi, an enduring symbol of spirituality, equality, and women's empowerment.

The University offers a wide range of undergraduate, postgraduate, and doctoral programs in Arts, Science, Commerce & Management, Education, and Social Sciences, alongside specialized courses that foster leadership and entrepreneurship. With jurisdiction over 158 women's colleges across Karnataka and accredited from NAAC, the University remains committed to advancing women's education, research, and skill development, thereby nurturing empowered individuals and shaping future leaders for society.

About DLISc

The Department of Library and Information Science, established in 2007-08, envisions advancing the well-being of women through education, research, and outreach in Library and Information Science. The department is dedicated to providing quality education in the field through its diverse academic programs. With a strong focus on education, research, and service, the department fosters interdisciplinary understanding, diverse perspectives, and the creation and application of knowledge in the evolving information environments of the 21st century. It emphasises innovative teaching methods and the use of state-of-the-art technology. The department offers Certificate in Library Science, B.Lib.I.Sc, M.Lib.I.Sc and PhD programs.

About the IASLIC

The Indian Association of Special Libraries and Information Centres (IASLIC) is a non-profit organisation dedicated to the advancement of special librarianship in India. IASLIC plays a vital role in supporting and coordinating research, promoting studies, and conducting short-term training programs to strengthen the profession. The Association regularly organises general and special meetings, as well as seminars and biennial conferences, focusing on contemporary issues in libraries, information services, and allied areas, which serve as key themes for discussion and knowledge exchange. In addition, IASLIC contributes to the professional literature by publishing journals, monographs, manuals, newsletters, papers, proceedings, and reports.

About Conference

India aims to debut herself as a developed country by its centennial anniversary of independence in 2047 encompassing overall growth through sustainable societal advancement with stronger knowledge economy. It needs transformation of libraries and information systems onto a balanced modern resource management system enabling marginal poor, youths, women empower. LIS professionals face both tremendous opportunities and challenges to address such transformation. On the one hand, it facilitates global collaboration, improves accessibility, incorporates cutting-edge technologies, and enables customising user experiences.

By 2047, Libraries can make a substantial contribution to the goal of bringing out our country a knowledge-driven, digitally inclusive nation. Keeping the above in considerations, IASLIC has selected 'Library Vision 2047' as the main theme of its 34th All India Conference expecting the LIS professionals to delve upon ongoing important issues of opportunities and challenges that would result with fruitful outcomes and guidelines out of the deliberations and discussions.
