LIBRARY VISION 2047

January 5-7, 2026

Organised by

Department of Library and Information Science,
Karnataka State Akkamahadevi Women University,
Vijayapura, Karnataka - PIN 586108.

About KSAWUV

Karnataka State Akkamahadevi Women University (KSAWU), Vijayapura, established in 2003, is the first women's university in Karnataka and among the few in India dedicated exclusively for women's education. Recognized by the UGC under Sections 2(f) and 12(B), the University is named after the 12th century saint-poetess and social reformer Akkamahadevi, an enduring symbol of spirituality, equality, and women's empowerment.

The University offers a wide range of undergraduate, postgraduate, and doctoral programs in Arts, Science, Commerce & Management, Education, and Social Sciences, alongside specialized courses that foster leadership and entrepreneurship. With jurisdiction over 158 women's colleges across Karnataka and accredited from NAAC, the University remains committed to advancing women's education, research, and skill development, thereby nurturing empowered individuals and shaping future leaders for society.

About DLISc

The Department of Library and Information Science, established in 2007–08, envisions advancing the well-being of women through education, research, and outreach in Library and Information Science. The department is dedicated to providing quality education in the field through its diverse academic programs. With a strong focus on education, research, and service, the department fosters interdisciplinary understanding, diverse perspectives, and the creation and application of knowledge in the evolving information environments of the 21st century. It emphasises innovative teaching methods and the use of state-of-the-art technology. The department offers Certificate in Library Science, B.Lib.I.Sc, M.Lib.I.Sc and PhD programs.

About the IASLIC

The Indian Association of Special Libraries and Information Centres (IASLIC) is a non-profit organisation dedicated to the advancement of special librarianship in India. IASLIC plays a vital role in supporting and coordinating research, promoting studies, and conducting short-term training programs to strengthen the profession. The Association regularly organises general and special meetings, as well as seminars and biennial conferences, focusing on contemporary issues in libraries, information services, and allied areas, which serve as key themes for discussion and knowledge exchange. In addition, IASLIC contributes to the professional literature by publishing journals, monographs, manuals, newsletters, papers, proceedings, and reports.

About Conference

India aims to debut herself as a developed country by its centennial anniversary of independence in 2047 encompassing overall growth through sustainable societal advancement with stronger knowledge economy. It needs transformation of libraries and information systems onto a balanced modern resource management system enabling marginal poor, youths, women empower. LIS professionals face both tremendous opportunities and challenges to address such transformation. On the one hand, it facilitates global collaboration, improves accessibility, incorporates cutting-edge technologies, and enables customising user experiences.

By 2047, Libraries can make a substantial contribution to the goal of bringing out our country a knowledge-driven, digitally inclusive nation. Keeping the above in considerations, IASLIC has selected 'Library Vision 2047' as the main theme of its 34th All India Conference expecting the LIS professionals to delve upon ongoing important issues of opportunities and challenges that would result with fruitful outcomes and guidelines out of the deliberations and discussions. There will be deliberations on two other Special Interest Groups (SIGs) themes at the meetings of SIG 01 (Social Science Information): Community Empowerment and Libraries and SIG 02 (Computer Applications in Libraries): Innovative Library Services in Digital Age during the conference.
